

On Thursday, February 15, the three top auditors overseeing work in Iraq provided new information about the status of Iraq reconstruction projects and troop support contracts. The hearing examined whether the findings of these auditors should affect Congress' assessment of the President's new request for additional taxpayer dollars. A transcript of this hearing is now available.

Chairman Waxman questions the witnesses:

You need to have Windows Media Player in order to view this performance.
Download it from <http://www.windowsmedia.com/>

The following witnesses appeared before the committee:

- David M. Walker

Comptroller General of the United States

Government Accountability Office

- Stuart W. Bowen, Jr.

Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction

- William H. Reed

Director, Defense Contract Audit Agency

Documents and Links

- Chairman Waxman's Opening Statement
- Supplemental Memo on Iraq Reconstruction Contracts
- Testimony of Stuart Bowen
- Testimony of David M. Walker
- Testimony of William H. Reed
- Testimony of Kiki Skagen Munshi
- Hearing Transcript